ITS SECOND BATCH OF VICTIMS.
Mother and Two Children Killed at a Dangerous Railway Crossing.

Special to the Indianapolis Journal.

RICHMOND, Ind., July 9.—This evening train No. 8, on the Indianapolis division of the Pennsylvania railway, due here at 7:30, killed Mrs. Henry Ganz and two children.
John and Mary, aged, respectively, fourteen and twelve years. The accident happened at what is known as the Rich crossing, just outside the western limits of the city. The train was coming down grade at a rapid rate, being a few minutes late, when Mrs.
Ganz and children, who were returning to their home, near the Insane hospital, attempted to cross the track. The carriage was wrecked and all three of its occupants were killed instantly, the boy having the top of his skull torn entirely off.

The crossing is one of the most dangerous in the State, the wagon road and railway each being in a cut, making it impossible to see an approaching train. About five years ago three persons named Rich were killed at the same crossing in a similar manner, and it has since been called the Rich crossing. This accident cost the company about $40,000, and since that time it has kept a flagman there, but he is not on duty during the night. The three persons killed this evening comprised the entire family of Henry Ganz, a well-to-do gardener. He is overcome with grief.

FARMER GORED TO DEATH.
Ellis Hodgkin Tossed on the Horns of a Jersey Bull Till Life Was Extinct.

Special to the Indianapolis Journal.

NOBLESVILLE, Ind., July 9.—Ellis Hodgkin, a farmer, residing four miles southwest of Westfield, was gored to death today by a Jersey bull. A boy, learning of the attack, attempted to drive the brute away by using a pitchfork, but failed. The wife then, learning of her husband's peril, fired at the bull with a revolver, without effect.
The bull continued tossing its victim till life was extinct, and then it walked away.
The deceased was a son of ex-County Commissioner Henry Hodgkin, and a brother of Prof. A. W. Hodgkin.

THREE AGAINST ONE.

Charged with Murderous Assault for Trying to Throw Man and Wife Into a Well.

Special to the Indianapolis Journal.

GAZETTEVILLE, Ind., July 9.—Last evening Sheriff Meek arrested David Swinton, George Maple and George Morrison, of Sal-crook township, charged with an assault to commit murder. It seems that Michael Brogan was living on the lands of Swinton, and a dispute arose as to the rights of the parties. Swinton filed an injunction suit against Brogan, but Brogan won the suit. Brogan returned home, and, while watering his stock, was assaulted by the above-named parties with sticks, clubs and knives, and a general fight, with three to one, resulted. It is claimed they caught Brogan and were in the act of throwing him in a well, when his wife rushed to the husband's rescue, and in their desperate effort and madness they attempted to also pitch the wife into the well, when she would have done so but for the sudden appearance of Henry George, a near neighbor, who persuaded the angry parties to desist. Brogan left the battlefield with clothing badly cut and with a slight wound on the left side, inflicted with a knife. One of the arrested parties stated that Swinton had agreed to pay their fines if they got into trouble. They gave bond for their appearance in court.

TO-NIGHT'S FIGHT AT ROBY.

Johnny Griffin and Solly Smith to Battle for a Prize of $6,000.

Special to the Indianapolis Journal.

CHICAGO, July 9.—Johnny Griffin, the Baltimore lad, and Solly Smith, the Pacific coast champion, will meet to-morrow night in the arena of the Columbian Athletic Club at Roby, Ind., for a prize of $6,000 and the feather-weight championship of the world. Fanciers of ring sport and those notably interested in the boxing art have gathered here from all parts of the country to witness the most important contest which is to have the way for the greatest feather-weight battle possible—that between the winner and George Dixon.
The latter is here to personally defy the victor of the match. Champion Jim Corbett will be the club's special guest, and from the ring is expected to make a statement as to his position in the Corbett-Mitchell matter and the disputed scene of the coming fight. Corbett will then endeavor to refute the slurs and imputations of Judge Newton and the Coney Island Club.

END OF A LONG STRIKE.

Finishing Mill Men and Carpenters Will Return to Work After Nine Weeks of Idleness.

Special to the Indianapolis Journal.

EVANSVILLE, Ind., July 9.—The strike of the planing mill men and union carpenters, which has been in progress here for nine weeks, will be declared off to-morrow morning, and all who can secure their old positions will do so. The unions have lost, and it is a hard blow at organized labor, which is very strong here. The mill men wanted instead of ten hours work, with a slight advance per hour. The union carpenters had no grievance, but went out through sympathy. These men will now have to work ten hours in future, a loss of one hour per day, nine hours constituting a day's work in the past. This strike involved hundreds of others, painters, plumbers, bricklayers and other classes being thrown out of work because the building of consequence was brought to a stand-still.

Church Dedication at Anderson.

Special to the Indianapolis Journal.

ANDERSON, Ind., July 9.—This has been a gala day in Anderson for the members of St. Mary's Catholic Church. The corner stone of their new structure was laid with ceremonies befitting the occasion. Bishop Rodhamacher, of Nashville, Tenn., officiated, being assisted by Father Mulcahey, of this city; Father Beigh, of Elwood; Father Camen, of Logansport; Father King, of Union City; Father Schmidt, of Muncie, and Father Webber, of Indianapolis. Pending the event mass was celebrated at 8, 9 and 10 o'clock. Every train into the city was laden with visitors, and by noon thousands of strangers thronged the streets.
The parade formed at 3 o'clock in the afternoon, and the line of march took it through the principal streets and to the site of the new church edifice. In the crypt of the stone were placed copies of the Anderson daily papers, the Journal and Sentinel, the Catholic Record, manuscript with the names of President Cleveland and Cabinet, the Governor, State and city officials, together with souvenir copies of different countries and the names of the present officials of the church from the Pope to his subordinates. The structure is of Roman architecture, 65x135 feet, built of pressed brick and stone, surmounted by a tower 100 feet high. The interior will be handsome and well appointed, at an estimated cost of $50,000.

United Mine Workers Sued for Damages.

Special to the Indianapolis Journal.

TERRE HAUTE, Ind., July 9.—Benjamin Watson, a Sullivan county miner, has brought suit for $10,000 damages against the United Mine Workers of America. He alleges that because he failed to sign the check-off for his dues when being paid his wages he was expelled from the local lodge, which demanded of the company that he be discharged. The company refused and struck him. At the end of the week the men returned to work, but the drivers refused to haul the coal he mined.

Boy Drowned.

Special to the Indianapolis Journal.

COLUMBUS, Ind., July 9.—In White river, just south of this city, at 3 o'clock this afternoon, Josiah Wentworth, aged fourteen, was drowned while in bathing. A number of companions were with him, but they were so excited that they failed to render him any assistance. The body was recovered in water eight feet deep an hour later and brought to the home of his widowed mother in this city.

sioners yesterday ordered an election in Washington township to vote $18,000 worth of stock in the Indianapolis & Martinsville electric railway. The opposition will carry the matter into court, asking an injunc-

A Yacht's Battle with the Waves.

NEW YORK, July 9.—The racing yacht Queen Mab, whose long disappearance on her trip from England to this country caused so much anxiety among yachtsmen here, was finally reported by St. Georges, Bermuda, was towed into port today. The little craft passed through some rough gales. One of her crew was lost and others were severely injured by the bravery of their comrades. Outwardly, her rough passage is shown in paintless hull, broken rails, the absence of her two life boats and a general disordered appearance. In the cabin, broken doors, overturned furniture, displaced water tanks and wrecked nautical equipment all give evidence of the battle with wind and waves, which nearly ended the brilliant career of the boat that had carried off prize after prize in the English waters.

Boys Mangled on the Track.

POTTSVILLE, Pa., July 9.—While a party of boys were crossing the tracks of the Pennsylvania railroad at the lower end of town, this evening, they sat down on the tracks to view a coal train passing underneath, leaving a statement that he was 21.
One of the boys was struck by the engine of the latter and the approaching Lehigh passenger train from New York, and before the boys were aware of it the train was upon them. Ira Sallade was killed in two and mangled. Fred Suter had both legs badly mangled and was seriously injured about the body and head. He cannot possibly recover. The other boys escaped injury.

Robbed His Bank of $21,000.

FALLS CITY, Neb., July 9.—The State Bank at Shubert, a small town south of here, has failed. Yesterday the examiner investigated the bank. The cashier had gone, leaving a statement that he was 21.
600 short, having spent that amount on the Board of Trade. He said he preferred to leave his family to going to the penitentiary. Cashier Atchright is also the treasurer of the American Bond Company. The stockholders will pay all debts. Atchright was a young man well known.

THINKS CHOLERA MAY COME

Miss Kenealy Warns New Yorkers to Prepare for the Asiatic Pest.

She Says the Disease May Make Its Appearance in the Crowded Tenement Districts of the Metropolis at Any Time.

NEW YORK, July 9.—Miss Annesley Kenealy, appointed judge of the hygienic section of the world's fair by the ladies' committee of the royal commissioners, arrived here yesterday, on the steamship New York, from Southampton. Miss Kenealy is well known in medical circles. She is lecturer on technical education to the British sanitary council, and has contributed many important medical papers to different journals. Miss Kenealy was surprised at the stringent quarantine regulations which exist here.

"Quarantine is, of course, necessary," she said, yesterday, "but it seems to me that it is overdone here. I do not think that cholera could make deep inroads in this country, and if it does appear here it would take only a short time to stamp it out.
The prevailing, and I think the best treatment for cholera, is the saline injection.
In the number of cases of cholera, varying 60 per cent. of adult cases and 50 per cent. of children. As much as two quarts were injected at one time. The fluid is of the nature of sea water, and the stomach is injected warm. Hot baths and warm, stimulating drinks are administered at the same time. It is a simple and efficient remedy."

"You need not be a bit surprised if you have cholera right at your doors in the fall or before," said Miss Kenealy. "You were very late last year in carrying it out, but I fear you cannot this year. What I say to you may be unpleasant, but it is best to be warned in time. There are already two hundred cases of cholera in France, and it is getting a bad foothold in France. You have been told over here that it is impossible to contract the disease unless you return from abroad, and that is not true. Experience in the Hamburg epidemic proved the fallacy of this proposition. I acted as nurse in a hospital where there were two thousand patients. We noticed that every Monday morning there was an alarming increase in the number of new cases.
It soon became evident that these were not persons who had returned from abroad, but persons at the carriages, beer gardens and other resorts. So convinced of this became the authorities that they ordered the public houses to be closed, and the streets to be disinfected. As a result, the disease was brought to a standstill."

"I would like to ask those who contend that cholera cannot be contracted except through the digestive organs to explain how it came to be so prevalent in Hamburg, and how it came to be so prevalent in India, while to-day it comes along in five weeks. The germs of the disease can be carried by the wind, and it is not impossible for it to be carried by the wind. True it is that it is carried by the wind, but it is not carried by the wind alone. It is carried by the wind and water, and it is not impossible for it to be carried by the wind alone."

"Do you think cholera germs have lain dormant in this city during the winter and are likely to seize upon persons at any time?" she was asked.

"I have no doubt of it. You need not be astonished if the disease makes itself manifest in the crowded, filthy tenement districts of this city. You need not be surprised if it comes to you. You need not be surprised if it comes to you. You need not be surprised if it comes to you. You need not be surprised if it comes to you. You
